AWARD

Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board came into being with effect from 1-9-1971 under the Indian Electricity Supply Act, 1948. It took over all the works and electric installations from the MPP & Power Department of Himachal Pradesh Government. It had employed various persons against various posts including 178 employees about whom the present dispute relates. In or about the year 1972, they decided that all the electric installations covering the Government buildings will be handed over to the H. P. Public Works Department. In pursuance of this decision the electric installations and works were handed over to H.P. P.W.D. These 178 employees working either on regular basis or on work-charged basis were transferred along with the electric installations and works. The order of their transfer is Ex. R-5 dated 22-5-1973. No option have been asked for from the employees by the respondent Board for the transfer of their services to H.P. P.W.D. The employees through their union agitated the matter and objected to their transfer along with their electric installations to Himachal Pradesh Government. They wanted to continue in services in the respondent Board. The respondent Board and its workers entered into an agreement vide Ex. R-2 dated 8/12-7-1977. It appears that in pursuance of this agreement options were called and out of 178 transferred employees, 60 had opted to continue their services with the H. P. P. W. D. and the remaining 118 employees opted to continue their services with the respondent Board. In pursuance of this agreement, order of the repatriation of the 118 employees were passed on 1-8-1978 copy of which Ex. R-1. These employees are not satisfied with the treatment they had got from the H.P. State Electricity Board respondent No. 2 and the H.P. P.W.D. respondent No. 1 with whom they were working during the period 22-5-1973 to 1-8-1977. As the dispute between the employers and the employees could not be settled a reference had been made to this Tribunal vide Notification No. 18-72/73-SI (Shram), dated the 4th January, 1978. The following reference has been made in this Tribunal:—

“Whether the transfer of Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board Employees to Himachal State Public Works Department as a result of transfer of maintenance and electrical installation works of Government buildings without finalising their options is in order. If not, what directions/procedure are necessary in this respect and to what relief they are entitled?”

Claim petition has been filed by the Workers Union Petitioner. Replies have been filed by H.P. P.W.D. Respondent No. 1 and H.P.S.E.B. Respondent No. 2. In the reply of Respondent No. 2 (H.P. State Electricity Board) has admitted that the employees were transferred along with the electric installations and works. The Government decided to take over the maintenance. The H.P. P.W.D. at that time had no staff of their own and the H. P. State Electricity Board was approached to depute its employees for looking after the works and as a consequence thereof the employees were transferred pending the finalisation of their absorption in the H.P.P.W.D. and as such these employees can be considered on deputation in the absence of settlement of their terms and conditions. It has further been stated by the H.P. State Electricity Board that along with these 178 employees, other employees such as Executive Engineer, Assistant Engineers and Junior Engineers were also sent on deputation to (H.P. P.W.D.) Respondent No. 1 and that on the aforesaid analogy it is incumbent on the part of H.P. P.W.D. to extend similar treatment to other employees and pay the deputation allowance. The other allegations made by the petitioner have not been controverted. However, their claim for bonus and electricity allowance have been disputed on the ground that they are entitled to deputation allowance and that they are not entitled to claim from the Respondent Board itself. The agreement for repatriation Ex. R-2 dated 8-7-1977 has also not been challenged.

It is also stated by the Respondent Board that there was no necessity to ask for the option of petitioner as they were performing duties at the electric installations which were transferred to Government. The Respondent Board has not admitted the claim of the petitioner for any benefits out of the service which they rendered with the H.P. P.W.D.

Respondent No. 1 (H. P. P. W. D.) has also filed the reply. They have not admitted to the claim of the petitioners. It has been alleged that there was no agreement between the H. P. P. W. D. and H. P. S. E. B. for the payment of deputation allowance to the employees and the Respondent Government is not at all responsible either to pay the deputation allowance or to allow any other service benefits for the period they had worked with the H. P. P. W. D. on the transfer of installations.

The petitioner has filed replication and has controverted the pleas raised by the Respondent No. 1 & 2.

From the averments of the parties, the following issues arose and were framed by my predecessor on 16-10-1979:

1. Whether the applicants having been taken back by the H. P. S. E. B. have no further grievance in the terms of the reference and on that score the reference has become infructuous?
2. Whether the claim laid by the applicants per their claim petition filed on 13-8-1978, for (i) grant of deputation duty allowance, (ii) bonus, (iii) electricity allowance, and (iv) regularisation and promotion in the combined cadre of H. P. S. E. B. with retrospective effect vis-a-vis their juniors is outside the terms of the reference, if so to what effect?
3. Whether the applicants were transferred on deputation and not for good to the H. P. S. E. B. and they are entitled to the deputation allowance? O. P. P.
4. Whether the applicants are entitled to any (i) bonus and electricity allowance for the period they were with the H. P. S. E. B. If so, to what amount? OPP.
5. Whether the applicants are entitled to regularisation and promotion in the combined cadre of H. P. S. E. B. to their juniors?
6. Who is liable to pay the deputation or other allowances including bonus? OPP.

Issue No. 1 & 2 have been taken up for decision as preliminary issues and have been decided on 1-7-1980 by my predecessor. In fact these two issues have been left undecided with the observation that these cannot be decided as preliminary issues and it will be decided after recording evidence.

Findings :

Issues No. 1, 2 & 3.

These are inter-connected issues and for the sake of convenience, these issues have been taken up together.

The petitioner has examined 4 witnesses and Respondent Board examined 3 witnesses. The oral evidence led by the parties is not very much material for the decision of these issues. No evidence has been led by the H.P.P.W.D. Respondent No. 1. The proceeding against them are ex parte.

Ex. R-2 dated 8-7-1977 gives the detail of the agreement arrived at between the Workers Union and Respondent Board. It reads as under:—

"It was agreed that the existing E. I. Staff, who have exercised their options to H.P.S.E.B., shall be repatriated from P.W.D. to H.P.S.E.B. immediately. However, the Union agreed that such staff shall get the benefit of arrear on account of promotion etc. from the date of their actual promotion or joining back whichever is later in the Board and the matter regarding payment of arrear on this account if any payable to them for the period of their service in H.P. P.W.D. shall be paid by the P.W.D. as this is not the liability of the Board. Orders of repatriation shall be issued within one week."

After this agreement the order Ex. R-1, was passed and it appears that the option were called for and out of 178 employees, 60 had opted to continue with the H.P. P.W.D. whereas 118 employees who did not opt to serve the H.P.P.W.D. were repatriated to Respondent Board. The documents Ex. R-3 dated 30-10-1976, R-A dated 13-8-1975 show the employees who have been transferred along with the installation works were not satisfied with the transfer and they had been agitating to continue their services with the Respondent Board. Admittedly, these employees were not given the option to continue their services with the Respondent Board or to serve the H.P. P.W.D. It has been admitted before me that the Fundamental Rules and Supplementary Rules Vol-II, and Civil Services Rules Vol-I and II are applicable to the employees of the Respondent Board, in view of this fact the employees of two Respondent Board could not have been transferred to H.P. P.W.D. without their options being obtained from them. If they had not opted to serve the H.P.P.W.D. they could not be forced. If the exigency so required they would have been allowed to exercise their options to serve with the H.P.P.W.D. on deputation. Nothing like that appears to have been done. The Respondent Board has not placed on record letter in writing decision or agreement covering the transfer of electric installation along with the employees of Respondent Board working thereon. The evidence on record clearly show that no option had been asked for from the employees either to get their services transferred to H.P.P.W.D. permanently or on deputation. Their services could not be transferred along with electric installations. The employees have been treated if I may be permitted to say so as enigrate appendages with electric installations. The H.P.P.W.D. does not admit their claim for deputation allowance and rightly so. There is absolutely no evidence on the file to show that the H.P.P.W.D. had agreed to pay the deputation Allowance to their employees or they had asked for their services on deputation from the Respondent Board. During the period the 118 employees worked with the H.P. P.W.D., they have been paid their emoluments. They have neither been paid the deputation allowance nor any service benefits such as bonus, electricity allowance etc. etc. These employees are not at all at fault.

It may further be noted that Ex. R-6 dated 14-12-1974 settles the terms and the conditions of the employees who have been sent on deputation to the H.P.P.W.D. by the Respondent No. 2. If the 18 Engineers have been allowed the benefits of deputation allowance, I fail to understand as to why the 118 employees have not been treated alike and what are the basis for indiscriminate in not paying them deputation allowance.

The agreement Ex. R-2 for the repatriation of the employees who have not opted for continuing their services with the H.P.P.W.D. shows that these employees have been allowed the benefits of promotions and areas of pay etc. It is just possible that when 118 employees were on deputation some of their juniors have been promoted. These employees are entitled to be considered for promotion also at the time when their juniors were promoted. The claim for promotion be now considered by the Respondent No. 2. and if they are found fit and eligible for promotion they will be deemed to have been promoted from the date when their juniors were promoted and will get all the areas which flow from their promotion irrespective of the fact that they were not serving the Respondent No. 2 during the period when they would have been promoted. The payment of the arrear is the responsibility of Respondent No. 2 and not H.P.P.W.D. as has been observed because the P.W.D. has not agreed to take these employees on deputation and pay them the emoluments to which they are entitled to after promotion. Any how, the question of any recovery on this score from H.P.P.W.D. by the Board is matter between them.

The agreement Ex. R-2 be implemented by the Respondent Board in letter and spirit as has been indicated above and the claim of all 118 employees be settled individually and paid.

In view of these considerations, I hold issue No. 1 in favour of the petitioner and against the Respondent Board. The mere fact that the Respondent Board have taken back these 118 employees, no grievance survives for the further consideration of this reference. I further hold that the reference has not become infructuous in spite of the fact that 118 employees have been taken back by the Respondent Board. The claim for deputation allowance or in the alternative for the payment of other allowance like bonus, electricity allowance etc. still survives and must be paid by the Respondent Board as indicated above.

With regard to Issue No. 2 the observation have already been made. I decide this issue also in favour of petitioner and against the Respondent Board. The employees will be paid the bonus and electricity allowance etc. In view of this decision, the Respondent Board is not liable to pay deputation allowance. The service with the P.W.D. will be deemed to be service with the Respondent Board for the purpose of their service benefits including bonus, electricity allowance etc. I further hold that these 118 employees are entitled to regularisation of their services and promotion in the combined cadre of H.P.S.E.B. The service rendered by these employees with the P.W.D. must be taken to be service rendered with the Respondent Board. These employees must be considered for promotion when their juniors were promoted and if they are found to be eligible for promotion they will be deemed to have been promoted retrospectively i.e. the dates when their juniors were promoted and will also be entitled to get all the service benefits including arrears of pay etc. and further promotion as if they had been promoted from the date when their juniors were promoted. Issue No. 2 is, therefore, decided in favour of petitioner and against Respondent No. 2. It is made further clear that the PWD Respondent No. 1 does not incur any responsibility arising out of the deemed promotion.

As regards Issue No. 3 I hold that these employees were transferred on deputation to the H.P.P.W.D. The employees are governed by the service rules as indicated above. No employee can be forced to proceed on deputation without his consent and against his will. They never opted for deputation nor any option were called from them. At any rate they are not entitled to deputation allowance because of my findings on issue No.2 during the period they were working with the P.W.D. However Respondent No. 1 is not liable to pay deputation allowance.

Issue No. 4:

While deciding issue No. 2 it has been held that the petitioners are entitled to bonus and electricity allowance etc. for the period they were working with the P.W.D. I decide this issue accordingly in favour of petitioners and against the Respondent Board.

Issue No. 5:

While deciding the Issue No. 2 this question has been decided in favour of petitioners and against the Respondent Board. The petitioners are entitled to the regularisation and consideration for promotion in the combined cadre of the HPSEB at the time when their juniors were considered and were promoted.

Issue No. 6:

While deciding issue No. 2 it has been observed that the petitioner are not entitled to any deputation allowance but they are entitled to electricity allowance and bonus etc. and they will be paid by the Respondent No. 2 and not by the H.P.P.W.D. Respondent No. 1. I decide this issue accordingly in favour of the petitioner and against the Respondent Board.

Relief.

In view of the aforesaid consideration and decisions on all the issues I answer the reference by stating that the transfer of H.P.S.E.B. employees to the H.P.P.W.D. as a result of transfer of maintenance and Electricity Installation/Works of Government Buildings, without finalising their options is not in order nor justifiable under the rules of their service. During the period of their service with the H.P.P.W.D. they are entitled to the bonus electricity allowance etc. as if they had been in service of Respondent Board. Their entitlement may be calculated retrospectively and be paid to these employees. All these employees are also to be considered for promotion if and when their juniors in service of H.P.S.E.B. were considered and promoted. In case it is found that they are fit for promotion and eligibility is determined in their favour, they would be deemed to have been promoted if and when their juniors were promoted. They will be entitled to have all the benefits flowing from promotion with retrospective effect. All the employees are also entitled for regularisation of service irrespective of their service with the H.P.P.W.D. for which they never opted. The Respondent Board is directed to enforce this award as early as possible and not later than one month from the publication of this award. The copy of this award may be supplied to the parties as usual free of any charge.

Case No. 17/84

Shri Chhota Lal ... Petitioner.

Versus

M/s P. A. Pinion. Daarampur, Solan District.
... Respondent.

Present.—Shri P. L. Berry AR of the Petitioner.
Shri Rajinder Guleria, AR of the Respondent.

AWARD

Chhota Lal petitioner was workman employed by the Respondent-Management as a helper to the Carpenter on monthly wages of Rs. 475/-. He had put in 14 years of service. His services were regularised about 7 years back. He has alleged that in February, 1982 his son fell ill and for his treatment, he requested the Management for an advance of Rs. 1000/-. He further states that he could get the advance of Rs. 1000/- only on the condition of his putting in resignation. He has further alleged that he could not agree to put in his resignation and insisted for advance but it has not been paid to him. On the suggestion of the Manager for taking the advance he wrote that the amount of Rs. 1000/- be paid to him failing which this letter may be treated as his resignation and that under these circumstances he has not voluntarily resigned from this post and his services has been terminated wrongly.

The Respondent-Management has resisted this claim and filed a reply. All the allegation made by the petitioner have been denied. It has been stated that in the month of January, 1982, the son of petitioner was ill and he submitted the certificate for his illness w.e.f. 19-1-1983 to 6-2-1983. It has also been stated that the Management has advanced a sum of Rs. 100/- on 8-1-83 and Rs. 200/- on 17-1-1983. It has also been contended that the petitioner remained absent from 14-2-83 to 18-2-83 and then 24-2-83 onwards. It has finally been stated that the petitioner put his conditional resignation on 8-3-1983. In this letter he has stated that if the amount of Rs. 1000/- is not paid to him as advanced that letter may be treated as resignation. It has also been stated that the petitioner had been absent from duties frequently and his services have been interrupted on many times.

From the averments of the parties the following issues arose and were framed by me on 20-5-1984.

1. Whether the termination of services of the petitioner is in order and justified? OPR.
2. Whether petitioner has tendered resignation if so, to what effect? OPR.
3. Relief.

Findings.

Issue No. 1 and 2.

For the sake of convenience of both the parties, Issue No. 1 and 2 are taken up together. Shri Brij Mohan the Manager of the Respondent-Management has appeared as RW-1. According to PW-1 the petitioner had put in his resignation R-1, R-2 and R-3 and had insisted that it should be accepted.

Chhote Lal petitioner has appeared as PW-1 and has admitted that he has signed the letter Ex.R-1 to R-4 but he had enbathed that his signatures were obtained under duress and under misrepresentation. He has stated that his son was ill and for his treatment he had obtained leave.

The perusal of the resignation letters Ex. R-1 to R-3 clearly show that the resignation is conditional. In fact the petitioner wanted some amount for the treatment of his ailing son. He had stated that if the advance is not paid to him that letter may be treated as resignation. He has also mentioned that he may be allowed to get his son treated. These letters clearly show that he has not unconditionally resigned.

From these facts, it has to be seen as to whether the resignation is voluntarily or not. If it is voluntarily it will net amount to retrenchment. The term retrenchment has been defined in section 2(00) of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 as under:—

“retrenchment” means the termination by the employer of the service of the workman for any reason whatsoever, otherwise than as punishment inflicted by way of disciplinary action but does not include:—

- (a) Voluntary retirement of the workman; or
- (b) retirement of the workman on reaching the age of superannuation if the contract of the employment between the employer and the workman concerned contains a stipulation in this behalf; or
- (c) termination of the service of a workman on the ground of continued ill health;

According to this definition the retrenchment includes termination by the employer for any reason whatsoever. It includes within it compass all types of termination by the employer except voluntarily retirement. By compulsory retirement the service of the workmen are computed. It therefore, amounts to termination of their services. Such retirement would amount to retrenchment. In this present case, the petitioner has not voluntarily retired or resigned. He was putting his claim again and again for grant of advance to defray the expenses which might be incurred by him in the treatment of his ailing son. It appears that in order to put force in his submission for the grant of advance he has said in these letters that if the advance is not allowed or the leave is not granted that letters may be treated as resignation. Under these circumstances it cannot be held that the petitioner has voluntarily retired or resigned.

He has put in his three resignation Ex. R-1 is dated 8-3-1983, R-2 is dated 11-3-1983 and R-3 is dated 8-3-1983. On these letters Ex. R-3 the Manager of Respondent-Management had written the following:—

“Resignation accepted as he is regularly offender by remaining absent. He should be asked to explain as to why remained absent without permission to illegible with hold his gratuity illegible.

This shows that the petitioner according to the Manager was showing constant indifference to work by remaining habitually absent.

When all evidence and facts and circumstances of this case are taken into consideration. I care to the findings that the petitioner has not voluntarily resigned or retired. His resignation is conditional in fact, he has not resigned at all. In order to put force for the grant of advance of Rs. 1000/- for the treatment of his son and for getting his leave sanctioned he has said that if his demands are not met, his letter may be treated as resignation. The resignation has not been accepted in simple working and terms. Some explanation are being called and his dues are being withheld till his resignation was submitted and accepted. His termination of the service is therefore, retrenchment. He has not been paid his dues which was required to be paid to him under section 25-F of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947. This retrenchment cannot be justified on any case. The termination of his service is therefore, illegal and therefore he must be deemed to be in service. I decide both these issues in favour of petitioner and against the Respondent-Management.

Relief.

In the result, I hold that the termination of service of the petitioner on 8-3-1983 is illegal. The order terminating his service is to be quashed and is hereby quashed. The petitioner will be deemed to be in service inspite of his termination. He is entitled to all the back wages for the period he remained out of job. The petitioner is directed to report for duty to the Respondent-Management and join his duties. The parties are left to bear their own costs of these proceedings. The copy of this award may be supplied to the parties free of costs as usual.

The Himachal Pradesh Government has made a reference to this Court for adjudication in the dispute between S/Shri Shankar Dass and Raghuvir Singh Ex-Chowkidar v/s Management of Himachal Pradesh Mineral and Industrial Development Corporation, Parwanoo, District Solan, Himachal Pradesh vide Notification No. 8-15/80-Saram-II dated the 4th February, 1984. I have heard the AR of the petitioner. According to him, the reference is not in accordance with the dispute raised. The dispute is between Himachal Pradesh Horticultural Produce Marketing and Processive Corporation and its Workmen (Namely S/Shri Shankar Dass and Raghuvir Singh Ex-Chowkidar). But the reference mentions the name of different Corporation namely Himachal Pradesh Mineral and Industrial Corporation, Parwanoo. The reference is not properly constituted.
